

Judges' Comments for the AAWP Best Scholarly Postgraduate Paper Prize, 2020

Winner: Molly Murn (Flinders University) for her paper Writing on Thresholds: ekphrasis, collaboration, and threshold poetics

Writing on Thresholds: ekphrasis, collaboration, and threshold poetics is a confidently rendered and rigorous exploration of 'threshold poetics'. Her discussion of agency – of enabling and disabling it – is considered and cogent. We commend the depth of her thinking and the cohesion of its synthesis.
